

Species Cross-Reactivity of AbraMag GAR

AbraMag Goat anti-Rabbit IgG (GAR) beads do not cross-react with other species' IgG. Sandwich ELISA (in which microplate wells were coated with the GAR antibody) was used to measure binding of different species' IgG by the Goat anti-Rabbit IgG antibody used to produce AbraMag GAR magnetic beads. Cross-reactivity was virtually zero for all species tested (bovine, horse, mouse, and human).